issue 1 | 2021

We have closed the curtains on 2020 and would like to welcome 2021 with a spirit of enthusiasm and optimism. The past year was full of many challenging events, whether economically, politically, mentally, and emotionally for all of mankind. Hence, we are turning the page to the year 2021 with hope and happiness, aiming to achieve beyond the success of last year.

Let's review some of the events that took place in January 2021:

WEBINARS

Nile University hosted Dr. Mohammed Said ElSheemy Ali, Professor of Urology, Kasr El-Aini Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University, for a live public lecture on Nile University's Facebook page to talk about "How to write a scientific paper- Part I", followed by questions and discussions panel. The lecture was held online on Monday, 4th of January 2021, 7:00 - 9:00 pm.

The poster is for a seminar titled "Radio Frequency Sensing for Smart Homes and Assisted Living" by Prof. Moeness Amin. It features a circular portrait of Prof. Amin on the left. The background is dark blue with a faint circuit board pattern. Logos for "RESEARCH OFFICE" and "NU WINC" are in the top corners. An orange circle indicates the date "Wednesday January 6 2021". A clock icon shows the time "1:00 - 2:00 PM", a location pin icon shows "Room 127- UB1 (NU Campus)", and a Facebook icon shows the URL "facebook.com/NUresearch1". The word "LIVE ON" is written in red. The title "SEMINAR" is in a white box, followed by the seminar title and speaker name. The speaker's full title is listed at the bottom.

English Department Winners

The English department in collaboration with the student life office invited all students to participate in the NU Song competition. The purpose of this competition was to practice English while having fun. The participants were asked to choose one Arabic song and translate it to English while preserving the meaning of the original song.

It's our pleasure to announce the 6 winners out of 60 participants:

Our Champion Maya Haytham

Congratulations to our champion Maya Haytham for winning the 1st place in the swimming competition among 26 universities nationwide.

Excellia Team Winning 1st Place

Congratulations to Nile University's very own "Excellia Team" for winning 1st place in Egypt. Excellia project is a platform that helps university students to communicate more easily and effectively to aid in technical and academic problems, through direct communication technologies and using Google tools available to everyone.

Hossam Abdo Winning in Alabakera TV Show Competition

Congratulations Hossam Abdo for winning (Apple Mac Book) on the learn history on TikTok competition in collaboration with Alabakera TV show under the hashtag #learnontiktok. This is a weekly competition in which Egyptian students participate by presenting an educational film with a time span of one minute and is an initiative to support distance education in various educational fields and for all age groups.
