NILE UNIVERSITY

NU is the first research, Non-Profit "Ahleya" university in Egypt . It was inaugurated in 2007 as a world-class, internationally recognized education and research University.

School of Information Technology and computer Science, Nile University (ITCS) is seeking to hire:

Teaching Assistant (TA)

The School of Information Technology and computer Science, Nile University (ITCS) is hiring Teaching Assistants (TA) in Computer Sciences and Artificial Intelligence for the academic year 2021/2022

The Successful candidate will:

Required to teach and lead the course tutorials, labs, exercises for undergraduate courses (Computer science/Artificial Intelligence BSc Program) like:
• Computer Programming.
• Data structure.
• Computer Architecture.
• Compilers
• Machine learning.
• Software Engineering.
• Database Systems.
• Image Processing
• Computer Vision
• Augmented Reality
• Required to carry out administrative tasks that include and not limited to; supporting in administrative and academic committees, student development programs, student admission and recruiting process, course development, Quality Assurance procedures and requirements

Requirements:

B.Sc. from Schools/programs of Computer Science, Computer Engineering, or any related fields with minimum $CGPA \geq 3.0$ or equivalent.
• Previous teaching experience is a plus.
• Be Familiar with the following topics:
• Machine Learning/Artificial Intelligence.
• Image processing/ Computer Vision systems.
• Augmented Reality/Virtual Reality.
• Database systems and Big Data.
• Software Engineering.
• Linux OS and programming Languages such as C++, Python, and Java.

Benefits:

• You will be enrolled in the MSc program of Informatics, Software Engineering, and Information Security at Nile university with the possibility to pursue your master thesis.

To Apply:

Candidates must submit their CV to ITCS.careers@nu.edu.eg and mention the title of the job in the subject of their email.

For More information
https://nu.edu.eg/jobs.php

0 2 3854 1842   w w w . n u . e d u . e g